Many protests in solidarity with Dr. Abduljalil al-Singace are occurring on a daily basis. Al-Singace has been on a hunger strike for more than 95 days, in protest of the continuous violations and ill-treatment of prisoners of conscious in jails.

Recently, there was a solidarity stand with al-Singace at Al Rashid Mosque in Sanabis. Many activists, fathers of martyrs, and other public figures participated in this stand.

The participants delivered several speeches of recognition of Dr. al-Singace and his peaceful and human rights role in Bahrain, before and after the revolution.

On the other hand, the recently released Ebrahim Sharif paid the family of al-Singace a visit to get updates on his medical condition. Ebrahim Sharif is one of the Bahrain 13 and an old colleague of al-Singace, who has been in jail since 2011. However, he was admitted to the hospital two months ago after his health dwindled because of his hunger strike.
